Title: Cherish Public Housing Resources

Presenter Public housing flats are for those in genuine need

The Housing Department will visit tenants and investigate tenancy abuse cases

Here are a few examples of tenancy abuse

Super Non-occupation
Subletting (with or without rental income)
Operating illegal activities
Non-domestic usage
Reporting false information

Tenant I come back every now and then

That shouldn't be a problem!

Presenter You take up the flat but don't actually live in it

Of course it's a problem!

Tenant $2,000 a month, that's a good deal for you!

Presenter Hey! Tenants can't sublet their flats!

Tenant Place your bets!

Presenter No! That's illegal!

Tenant Hurry up! There are still another 20 boxes to come!

Presenter Hey! This is a public housing flat, not a warehouse!

Tenant I earn $20,000 a month. I'll say...just $7,000

Presenter You're making a false declaration! That's outrageous!

Super Tenancy Termination
Debarred for two years
HK$50,000 Fine
6 months' Imprisonment

Presenter The Housing Department will terminate the tenancy and recover the flat if a tenant is proven to have abused public housing resources and breached the tenancy agreement

The tenant will also be debarred from applying for another public housing flat for two years

Even if the tenant is eventually allocated another flat it will not be better than his/her previous abode in terms of

Moreover, tenants proven to have reported false information and breached the Housing Ordinance could be convicted

The maximum penalty is a fine of $50,000 and 6 months' imprisonment

Tenant

Goodness me! I won't risk it!
