

Housing Channel

Title: Protection from Unfair Trade Practices

TV station staff Hello, Sir

 I'm from the TV station and introducing HD digital TV to residents on behalf of the Housing Department

 I'll also check your TV set for free

Grandad Okay. Come on in TV station staff Thank you

 Sir, when broadcasting switches to HD TV later you won't be able to receive programmes on this TV set Grandad What? What can I do about it?

TV station staff Don't worry. If you register for pay TV you'll get dozens of free and pay channels

 We are doing a special now

 You'll only pay $30 a month

Grandad I see...let me think it over

TV station staff This offer won't last

 Give me your ID card and I'll register for you

Grandson Hi, Grandad. I've come on another visit to see you

 Hey, what's going on?

Grandad This young man is registering me for pay TV so I can watch HD programmes

Grandson Who says you must get pay TV to do that?

 How can you trick elderly folks this way?

 What's wrong with you!

TV station staff I just said that pay TV offers more channels Anyway, $30 is a bargain
Why don't you think it over?
I'll make a move now. Bye

Grandson Look Grandad, this offer is only for 3 months After the first 3 months, you'll pay over $100
And the contract is for 18 months

Grandad What! Is it really so expensive?
But is it true I can't watch TV if I don't sign?

Grandson Of course not

Super All TV sets can receive the following free channels:
TVB Jade aTV Home TVB Pearl aTV World

VO Nowadays, analogue and digital TV are broadcast simultaneously Older TV sets can still receive free TV
The Housing Authority has fitted all its estates with digital broadcast receivers
If you want to watch free HD TV you must buy a decoder or change to a HD TV set with a built-in decoder

Grandson As for installing paid TV that depends on your own needs and means

Super If you see door-to-door salespersons inform the security guard

VO Always read a contract carefully before signing It's best to discuss it with your family first

Remember, don't show your ID card or sign your name casually

Also, the HA doesn't commission salespersons including staff of pay TV stations or decoder salesmen

In short, don't open your door to strangers

Grandson

I'll buy you a decoder later and you can watch more TV programmes how about that?

Grandad

That's great! You're such a good grandson!

Super

Beware of unfair trade practices

Do not sign contracts casually
