Title: Community Impressions – Handing Down the Fortune in Kwong Fuk

Super Ms Lee
member of a women’s volunteer group at Kwong Fuk Estate

Handing Down the Fortune in Kwong Fuk

Ms Lee I moved into Kwong Fuk Estate in 1985

At first, the officer and some women at the Centre earnestly invited me to join their activities

They said, “Don’t worry, just come for a while and get in touch with us all”

That’s how I joined this women’s volunteer group

Super Andy voluntary coach of Tai Po Rugby Club

Andy I live in Tai Po

I come here to teach rugby in the morning

It’s just a 10-minute walk from Kwong Fuk Estate

I keep coming here every Sunday for over 10 years

I still look forward to coming here every week

Be it for teaching, playing, contesting or chatting a group of friends and teammates are drawn here

Ms Lee I ran into a group of friends who taught rugby

They were recruiting children participants

At the beginning, the kids were just running around

Andy They were all residents from our estate

Ms Lee The bus was full of children from Kwong Fuk Estate

It's fun

Andy I come to teach rugby in Kwong Fuk Estate every week and get to know the kids from around the area

To a certain extent this is my mother's influence

Ever since we were young she engaged us in volunteer work

What has made you so persistent and wish to go on?

Ms Lee We started off supporting each other and gradually we've built up friendship

Because we have good neighbours and I've made a lot of friends in Kwong Fuk Estate

All in all, I enjoy living here very much

I'm grateful for being able to live in Tai Po
