

Housing Channel

Title: Community Impressions – Reflections of the Rainbow

Diane At first I lived in Cheung Sha Wan together with my parents, three of us

 Then we moved to Sham Shui Po occupying the top floor of a tenement building

 It was quite an old building

 We were given an opportunity to be allocated a unit in a public housing estate

 It's actually quite comfortable here with old folks playing chess or doing morning exercise

 Everyone in the estate enjoys walking slowly, leisurely here

 It's free from the hustle and bustle of city life

 If you live here, you'll feel the laid-back and leisure atmosphere of the estate

 Maybe it's because I work in advertising

 The pace is very fast

 Advertising rarely makes a lasting impression

 You can only draw people's attention for a few seconds

They can remember your ads for only a couple of weeks

Things go as rapidly as they have come and that's advertising

Coming back home is a contrast

As you walk into the estate you'll see kids playing and yelling

Some old ladies are doing exercise and chatting

Some are playing table tennis

You see a sudden change in the tempo of life

If a person is constantly overstretched like a rubber band, it's not good

So I like being home enjoying the comfort

This estate

really gives me a feeling of restfulness

Super

Diane moved into Choi Hung Estate in 2003

Choi Hung:
Reflections of the Rainbow