

Housing Channel

Super:

Multiple Rent Payment Methods

Lo's friend:

Sorry I'm late wait for me for a while longer I'll pay my rent first I'm afraid the estate shroff office would have been closed after our afternoon tea

Lo Koon Lan:

Don't worry public rental housing tenants don't necessarily have to go to the estate shroff office to pay rent

Super:

Host: LO Koon-lan

FVO:

With Housing Department e-Payment Card tenants can pay their rent at any 7-Eleven, Circle K and VanGO convenience stores or China Resources Vanguard Supermarket After making the payment you will get a receipt It's simple and convenient

Lo's friend:

There's enough time to pay rent after tea
it's really convenient

Lo Koon Lan:

That's not all, tenants can also pay their rent through 'PPS' internet banking, phone banking and ATM
If you want to take care of the matter once and for all you can apply for Autopay

Super:

PPS
Internet Banking

Phone Banking
Automatic Teller Machine

FVO:

Simply obtain an 'Autopay Authorisation Form' from an estate office fill in the form and return it to the estate office it's all done

Super:

Autopay Authorisation Form

Lo Koon Lan:

There are so many alternative channels to pay rent
It really saves a lot of time