

Housing Channel

Super:

Marking Scheme for Estate Management Enforcement — Keeping Dogs Prohibited

Daughter:

Dad

Mother:

Darling

Father:

Hey, you have just returned from visiting your Auntie, right
But where did you get the puppy from

Mother:

You know Auntie has some puppies at home and our daughter is very fond of them so Auntie let her take Little Q home

Father:

Darling, don't you realise that dogs are not allowed in public housing estates

Daughter:

Daddy please, Little Q is a good puppy

Father:

Well, the Marking Scheme for Estate Management Enforcement in Public Housing Estate clearly states that five penalty points will be allotted to those found keeping a dog in a PRH flat
We shouldn't blatantly break the rule

Super:

Marking Scheme for Estate Management Enforcement
Keeping Dogs Prohibited
Five Penalty Points allotted

Mother:

Even so, won't I be the one to receive the penalty points
As the household head you won't be involved and we can still live in our PRH flat

Father:

Not really

Father VO:

The leasing of PRH flats is on a family basis

Any member of the family who commits misdeeds under the Marking Scheme will receive penalty points that are recorded under the tenancy of the household

If a family accrues 16 penalty points, the tenancy is liable to termination and the entire family will have to move out

Mother:

That is serious

Daughter:

Mum, we'd better return Little Q

Father:

Good girl. I promise

we'll visit Little Q whenever we have time

Now let's take the puppy back to your Auntie

Daughter:

All right