

Housing Channel

Title: Greening Activities and Waste Recycling Facilities in Public Rental Housing Estates

Super	Greening Activities and Waste Recycling Facilities in Public Rental Housing Estates
Super	Happy Green Home
Narrator	To promote greening in public rental housing estates the Housing Authority implements “Happy Green Home” annually with seed packages distributed in different estates encouraging residents to make their own pots with recycled household utensils
Super	Community Garden Programme
Narrator	The “Community Garden Programme” provides planting tools materials and basic knowledge of farming which not only allows residents to experience the joy of harvest but also creates a greening environment for the estates and fosters a sense of belonging.
Super	Waste Recycling Facilities in public rental housing estates
Narrator	Besides, the Housing Authority has been promoting waste reduction and clean recycling in all public rental housing estates.
Super	Waste separation and recycling in public rental housing estates
Narrator	Recycling stations have been set up in public areas of housing estates to collect wastepaper, plastic bottles, metal, glass bottles
Narrator	used clothing, fluorescent tubes and rechargeable batteries
Narrator	The Housing Authority also collaborates with the Environmental Protection Department to implement recycling scheme of plastic recyclables in public rental housing estates
Narrator	the Reverse Vending Machine Pilot Scheme

Narrator

and the Pilot Scheme on Commercial and Industrial Food Waste Collection
to promote waste separation at source