CIC Safety Reminder on Site Supervision Before and After Holiday

Date: 6 April 2023
Our Ref. : HD2-7/SHU/108-30/14

As the Easter holiday approaches, the Construction Industry Council (CIC) anticipates that several management and supervisory personnel will take leave during this period. It is, therefore, imperative to plan ahead and ensure that site safety is not compromised, especially ensuring sufficient supervision on high-risk activities, maintaining a tidy and well organised workplace under the alternate rain and sunshine weather.

CIC would like to deliver this safety reminder signed by our Chairman, Chairperson of Committee on Construction Safety and Executive Director for your attention on the importance of site supervision before and after holiday. Presentation materials and a safety leadership pack from the CEO Safety Forum would be provided for your reference. It would be much appreciated if you could distribute the message below to your fellow members, relevant personnel or other industry stakeholders where appropriate.
